

Instructions -

- Cut out the two sets of four images with their tabs.
- Cut out the heart.
- Cut the heart in half along the middle black line.
- Glue the two sets of images together with the tab (make sure you glue them in the right order).
- Fold the images on the dotted lines, according style.
- Glue the left side of the heart to the first tab
- The tab needs to go right up against the cut with the top of the top at the crest of the heart.
- Glue the right side of the heart to the last tab.
- Again, the tab needs to go right up against the cut with the top of the top at the crest of the heart.
- Your book should shut like an accordion and the heart match in the middle to show the cross.
